

RBC Wealth Management (RBC WM) welcomes conversation. Our social media accounts (Facebook and LinkedIn) are moderated and we do not permit inappropriate conversations. By posting content and/or comments, or otherwise engaging in conversations on our social media pages, you (and your parent/legal guardian if you are under the age of majority) hereby agree to the following commenting guidelines set forth below.

RBC WM Social Media Commenting Guidelines:

- Stay on topic. Let's stick to relevant topics only.
- We encourage comments and constructive debate, but please refrain from attacks on individuals, RBC employees, RBC WM and its affiliates, or other companies. Comments that degrade others or are threatening, obscene, profane, vulgar, contain hate speech, or could be harmful to anyone will not be replied to and may be removed by RBC WM at any time in its sole discretion.
- No investment advice or testimonials. Comments that request or provide recommendations or advice about specific investments will not be replied to and may be removed by RBC WM any time, in its sole discretion.
- Please do not share or send personal, confidential, account, or transaction information about yourself, specific investments or others via social media.
- We are not responsible for the terms of use or privacy or security policies on social media channels or other websites. You use those sites at your own risk.
- Please visit our Privacy Policy and the Legal Terms of Use.

RBC Wealth Management Social Media Guidelines

- Comments and opinions posted by users are the responsibility of the person who posts them. RBC WM does not guarantee the accuracy of the content posted by others and these do not represent the views of RBC WM or its management.
- RBC WM reserves the right to block any follower who posts or shares content that is deemed inappropriate, offensive or constitutes as testimonial, advice, recommendation, or advertisement for products and/or services. We also reserve the right to block followers whose social media pages contain offensive or inappropriate content or serve as promotional sites.

Please be aware that RBC WM retains records of all content, communications, posts etc. made on our social media channels for the purposes of managing the social media accounts and to comply with our legal/regulatory requirements. If you have a question or concern about anything posted on RBC WM's social media pages, contact us at socialmedia@rbc.com.
